

Craig School of Business

2026

Dear Graduates:

Congratulations, Craig graduates! You have reached a significant milestone, and I hope all of you take pride in what you've accomplished. We at the Craig School of Business are certainly proud of you and it has been a privilege for us to play a role in your education.

All of you have faced challenges and developed your own unique talents. You have worked hard, overcome difficulties, and learned much about the world and yourselves. As your professors and mentors, we have sought to develop the particular strengths that make you who you are. You will find in the coming years that your unique perspective is your secret weapon in both work and life. I hope you will find a way to share your gifts with the world, make an impact, and give back to your community.

You are now part of a proud tradition that goes back 100 years to the beginning of the Craig School of Business. Generations of Craig School graduates have come before you. They have built great businesses, strengthened their communities, and created value for others. Many of you have personally benefited from the mentorship, support, and dedicated service of our alumni. You now walk in their footsteps, and I am confident that you will set an example for the generations of Craig School students who will come after you.

Today is an exciting day, and it is your day. We celebrate your achievement and we look forward to seeing what you will achieve next. You make us Craig School Proud!

Best wishes to all of you in your future endeavors!

Sincerely,

Julie B. Olson-Buchanan, Ph.D.
Dean, Craig School of Business

Joshua Easterly

Doctor of Laws

Joshua Easterly is a co-founder and partner emeritus of Sixth Street Partners, an asset management firm managing more than $125 billion in assets. Prior to announcing his retirement in March, he served as Sixth Street Partners' co-president and co-chief investment officer.

In addition, Easterly served as CEO of his publicly traded business development company, Sixth Street Specialty Lending, which doubled total shareholder return of the industry and beat the S+P index over his 12-year tenure. He also served as CEO of Sixth Street's private institutional BDC, Sixth Street Lending Partners.

Prior to Sixth Street, Easterly was a managing director in the largest proprietary investment group at Goldman Sachs, where he was chief investment officer of the Americas special situations group, co-head of asset investing and co-head of private equity. He also served as head of principal investing and co-head of the Goldman Sachs Specialty Lending Group.

Earlier in his career, Easterly was senior vice president at Wells Fargo Foothill, the commercial finance company of Wells Fargo & Co. He grew up in Fresno and earned a bachelor's degree in business administration, graduating magna cum laude from Fresno State.

Easterly has been committed to a broad range of philanthropic activities with his capital and time, recently serving on the Board of Trustees of Harlem Academy. In addition to his nonprofit boards, he served on corporate boards including Legends Global, Enstar, Talcott Financial and as chair of Sixth Street Specialty Lending, Inc. and Sixth Street Lending Partners.

Laura Ramos

Graduate Dean's Medalist
Master of Business Administration for Executives

Laura Ramos, of Fresno, earned her M.B.A. for Executives with a 4.0 GPA. She previously earned a B.S. degree in business administration at Fresno State in 2001. Since graduation, Ramos has worked continuously at Fresno State, starting her career at the Center for Irrigation Technology. Since 2018, she has served as director of research and education for the California Water Institute. Throughout her time in the MBA program, Ramos has used what she has learned in the classroom to improve policies and procedures at the California Water Institute. She has aligned the institute's planning with the university's strategic goals, expanded partnerships with tribal and environmental groups to bring all stakeholders to water negotiations and launched a Weekly Water Insights segment on KMJ radio. Ramos' culminating MBA project focused on defining a niche strategy for the California Water Institute, supported by a financial sustainability framework targeting at least $1 million in annual grant funding. Ramos plans to lead the institute to be the preeminent public policy institute for the Central Valley.

Jordan Rodriguez

Undergraduate Dean's Medalist
Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, Option in Finance

Jordan Rodriguez, of Fresno, earned his B.S. in business administration with an option in finance with a 4.0 GPA. Rodriguez has served as President of the Association of Finance Scholars, an investment analyst with the Student-Managed Investment Fund and as Meet the Firms Committee Head for Beta Alpha Psi. He has interned with the Better Business Bureau, Axos Bank and FFB Bank and has volunteered for Beautify Fresno, Povarello House and the Los Angeles Regional Food Bank. Rodriguez represented Fresno State in the Chartered Financial Analyst Institute Research Challenge competition and the Quinnipiac Global Asset Management Education Forum competition. He has earned a Chartered Financial Analyst Level I certification and is currently preparing for the Level II examination. Rodriguez thanks Fresno State for teaching him to be open-minded and curious; his parents for instilling good values and encouraging high academic achievement; and his fiancée, Delaney Meyer, for being his rock and support. Rodriguez plans to pursue a career in commercial lending and an MBA.
